

COMPOSED EXPRESSLY FOR THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

THE POST DISPATCH'S ALBUM
PART IV
OF ORIGINAL SONGS

YOU'LL

HAVE

SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS
BY MISS
BONNIE THORNTON

TO TRANSFER

BY ABE HOLZMANN: "SMOKY MOKES" COMPOSER OF

AND
"BUNCH
O' BLACKBERRIES." (NEW)

SUPPLEMENT TO THE POST-DISPATCH SUNDAY OCT 22 1899

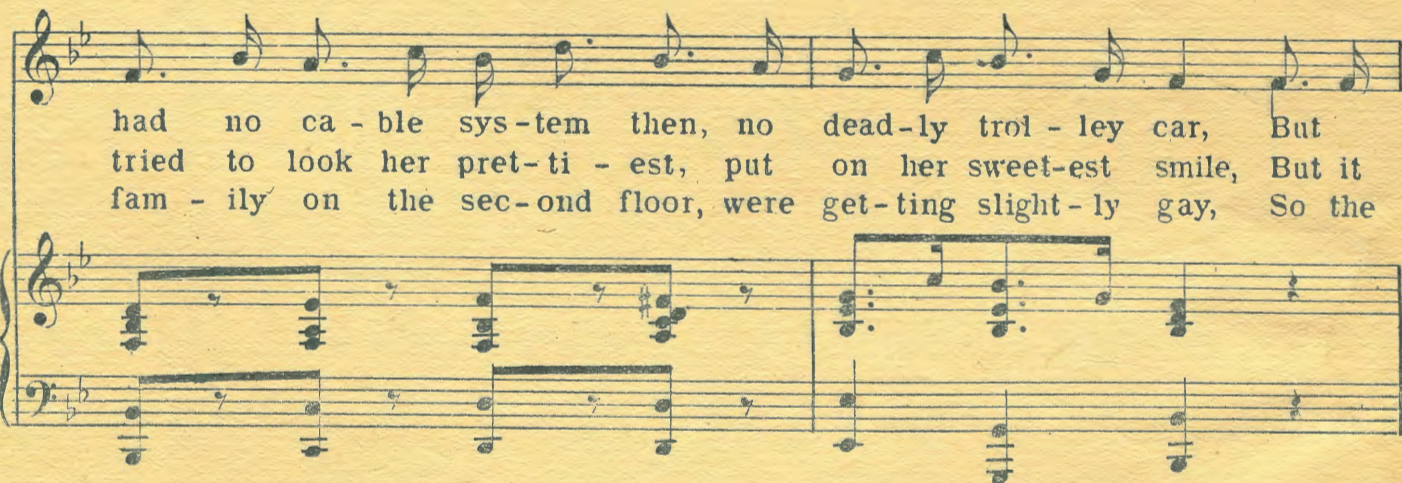

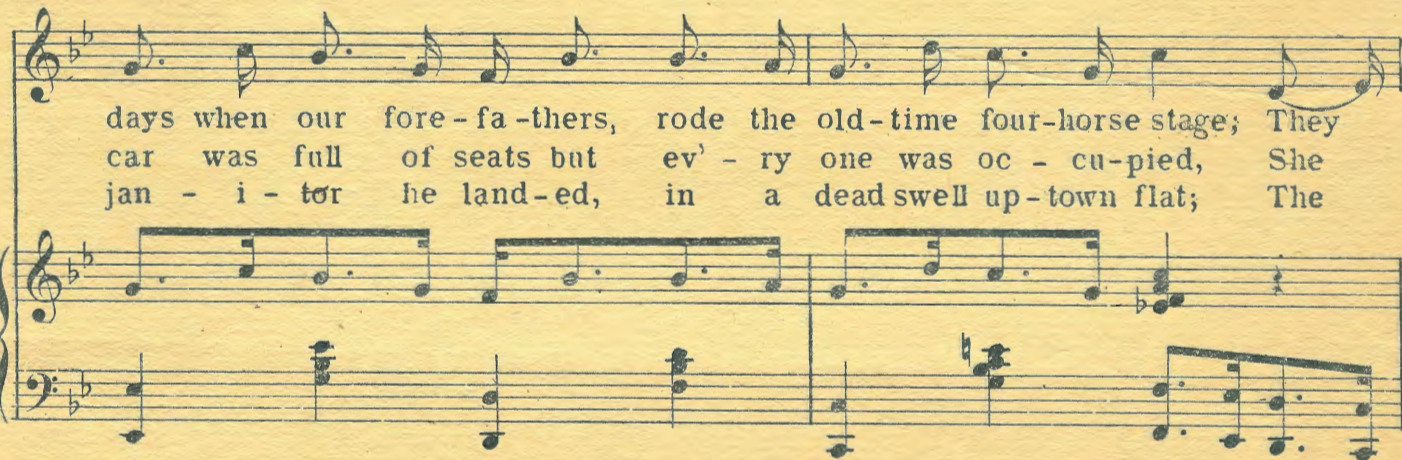

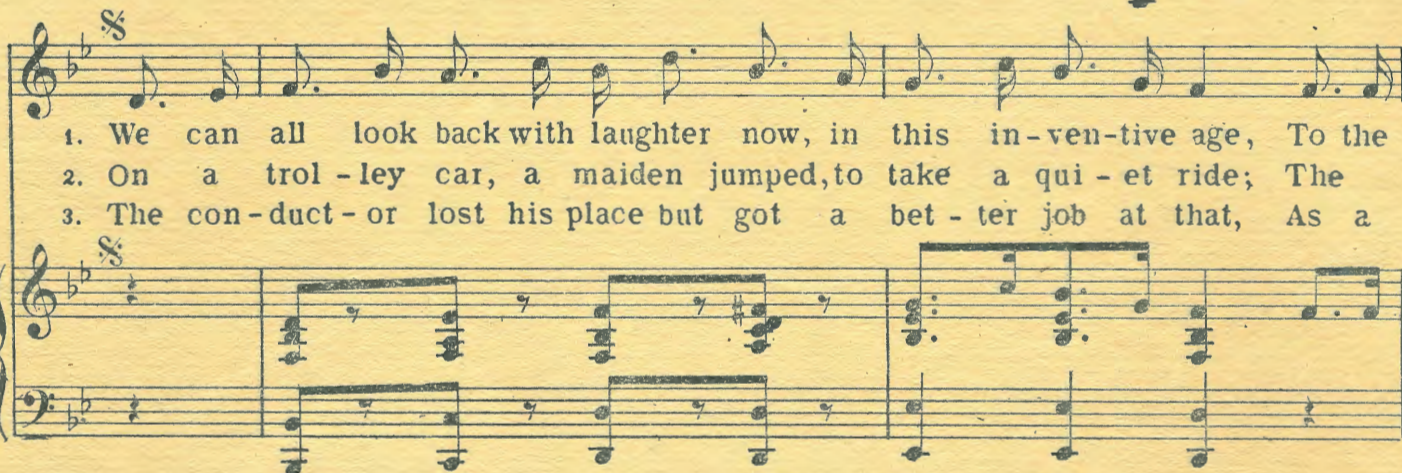

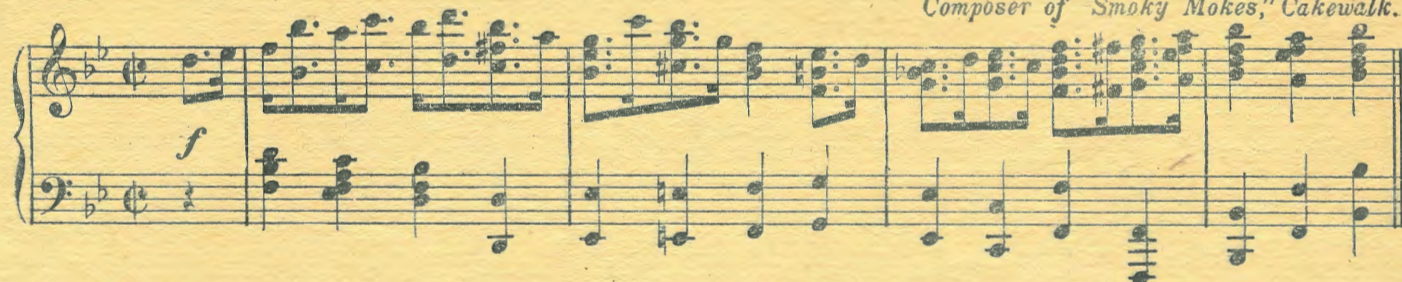

PUBLISHED BY FIEST & FRANKENTHALER N.Y.

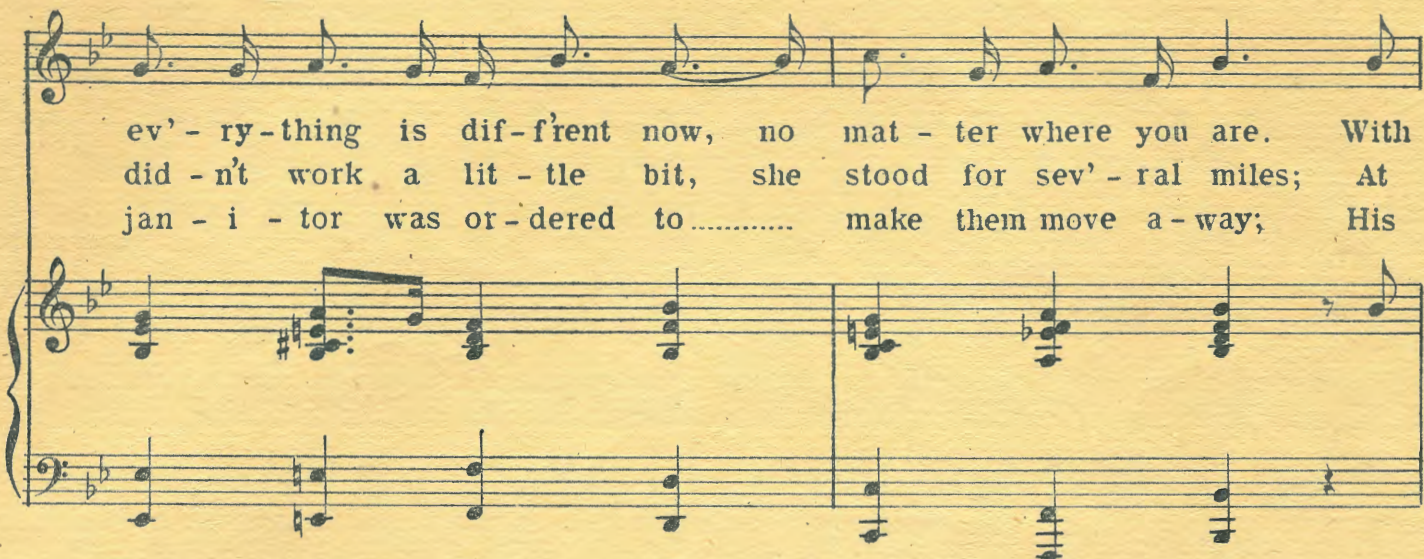

YOU'LL HAVE TO TRANSFER.

A SONG OF THE DAY.

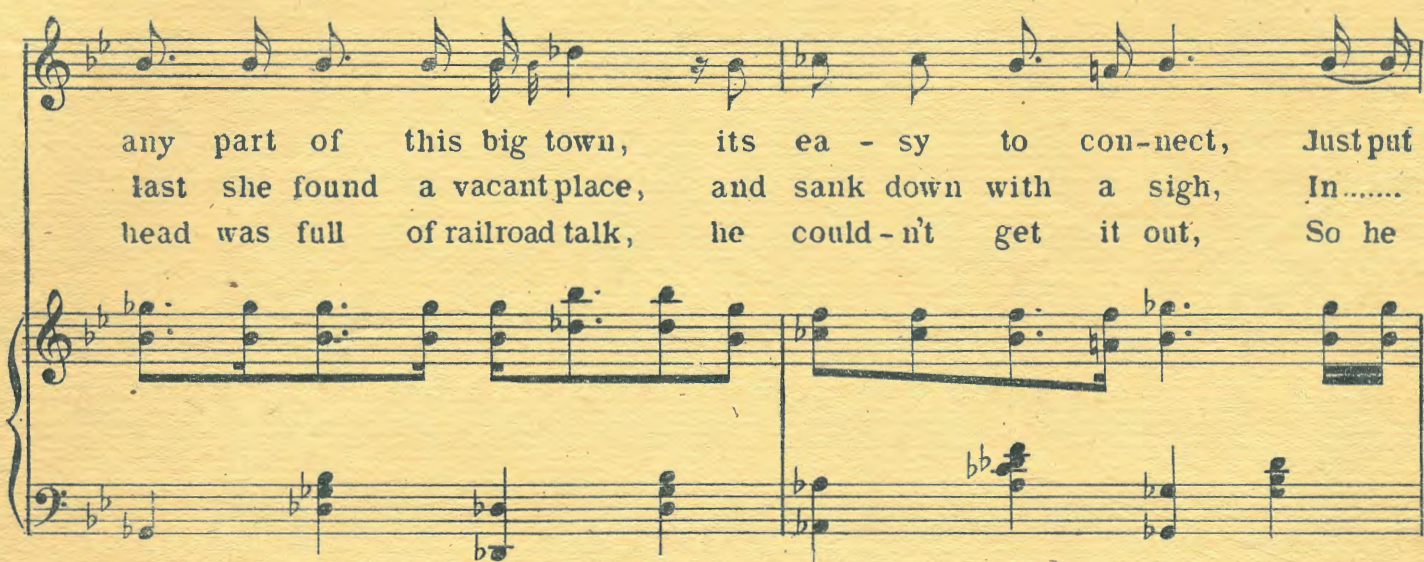

Theme by Leo Feist.

Music by Abe Holzmann.
Composer of "Smoky Mokes," Cakewalk.

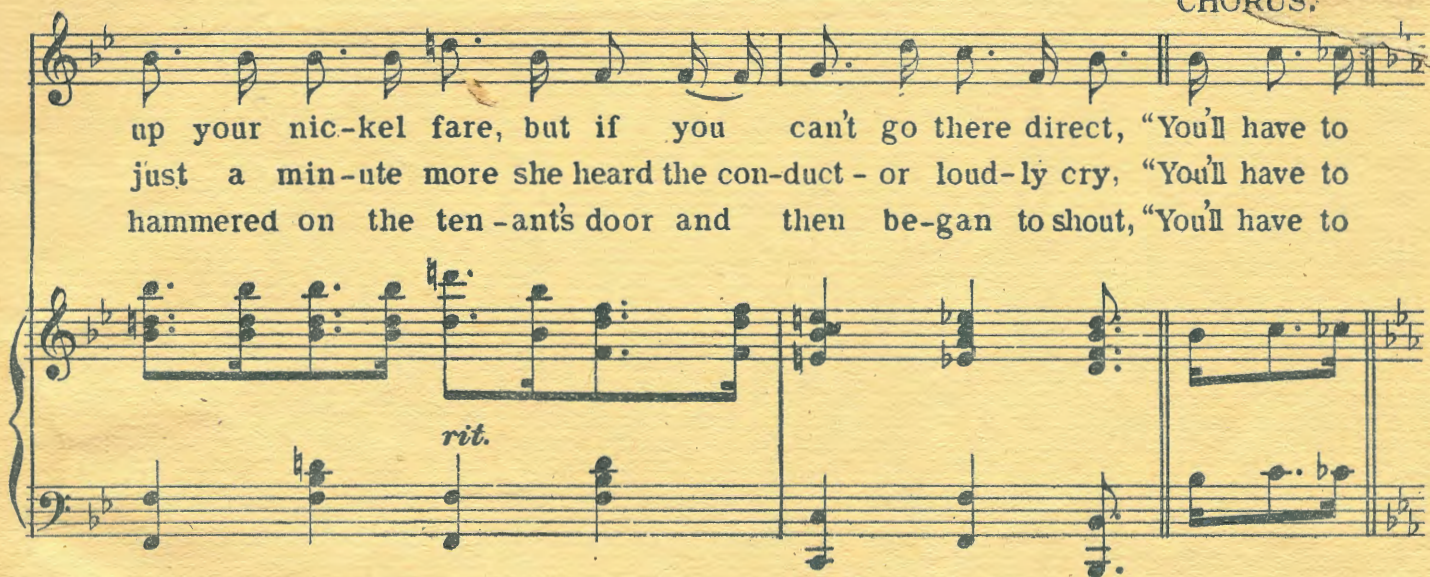

ev'-ry-thing is dif-f'rent now, no mat-ter where you are. With did-n't work a lit-tle bit, she stood for sev'-ral miles; At jan-i-tor was or-dered to..... make them move a-way; His any part of this big town, its ea-sy to con-nect, Just put last she found a vacant place, and sank down with a sigh, In..... head was full of railroad talk, he could-n't get it out, So he

CHORUS.

up your nic-kel fare, but if you can't go there direct, "You'll have to just a min-ute more she heard the con-duct-or loud-ly cry, "You'll have to hammered on the ten-ant's door and then be-gan to shout, "You'll have to rit.

trans - fer, transfer up or down, Transfer to the East side or the p-f

West side of the town; And when you trans-fer, be-careful as you can, And see that you don't transfer back to the place where you be-gan. You'll have to place where you began."

D.S. %